

Good password practices help keep information safe

Using strong passwords is a great way to protect information and keep us safe from a cyber attack.

- 1 Where you can, use a passphrase – it's easier to remember and harder for someone else to guess.
- 2 Outside of work, consider using password manager software to safely store passwords.
- 3 No matter where you are, never share your password with anyone.

For help creating passwords, check out - www.cert.govt.nz/individuals/guides/how-to-create-a-good-password